

E. ANDREAS JOHANSSON

3488 Hiwood Ave, Stow, Ohio 44224 • (330) 328-1181 • e.andreas.johansson@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE

---

A teaching position in integrated social studies within grades seven through twelve.
Interested in sponsoring extra-curricular activities or coaching opportunities.

EDUCATION

---

Masters of Arts in Teaching, May 2007
Kent State University, Kent, Ohio
Integrated Social Studies, Grades 7-12
PRAXIS II - Passed February 2007

Bachelor of Arts, December 2002
Kent State University, Kent, Ohio
International Relations

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

---

Field & Student Teaching Experience – Nordonia High School, Macedonia, Ohio

- Planned, taught and co-taught lessons in Government, Economics, and Contemporary Issues.
- Responsible for ninety-five students in four classes during the entirety of student teaching period (twelve weeks).
- Observed a broad range of teaching methods in all offered social studies classes. Also observed other departments and their classrooms.
- Rated as “Overall Excellent” by University Supervisor.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

---

Driving Instructor, State of Ohio License Number 6339, with DriveTeam, Inc.

- Instructed advanced and basic driving techniques for teens, law enforcement, power company crews, and senior citizens.
- Taught using a variety of methods, including classroom, in-car, driving range, hands-on, and group instruction.

19D Cavalry Scout, Ohio Army National Guard, 1997-2003.

- Trained incoming soldiers on all tasks, weapon systems, and related material to above proficient levels.
- Educated battalion level elements on marksmanship, riot control, and field maneuvers.

HONORS & ACTIVITIES

---

Member, NCSS - National Council for the Social Studies
Member, NEA - National Education Association
Member, OEA - Ohio Education Association
Kent State University Student Leader of the Year, 2002